

The Vision

VOLUME 8, ISSUE 8

MARCH 23, 2012

EVENTS:

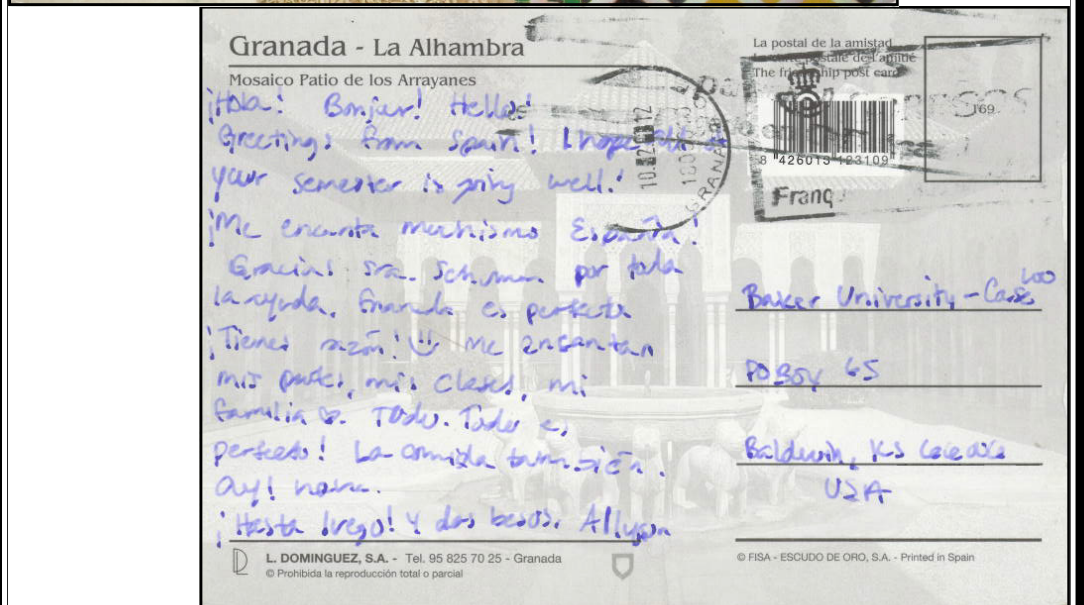

- German Table
every Tuesday
at 11:30
- French Table
every Thurs.
at 11:45
- Spanish Table
every Tuesday
at 11:30

INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

- ¡Saludos desde España! 1
- ¡Saludos desde España! 2
- Greetings from Spain! 2
- Mes vacances de printemps 3
- My Spring Break 3
- Don't Forget to Cross your T's and Dot your Umlauts 4
- CONTRIBUTE!! 4

¡Saludos desde España!

ALLYSON SASS

¡Saludos desde España!

¡Hola! Bonjour! Hello!

¡Saludos desde España! ¡Espero que el semestre os vaya bien! Me encanta muchísimo España! Gracias, Profe Schumm, por toda la ayuda. Granada es perfecta. ¡Tienes razón! :) Me encantan mis padres, mis clases, mi familia. Todo. ¡Todo es perfecto! La comida también. ¡Ay! Ja ja.

¡Hasta luego! y dos besos,

Allyson

Greetings from Spain!

¡Hola! Bonjour! Hello!

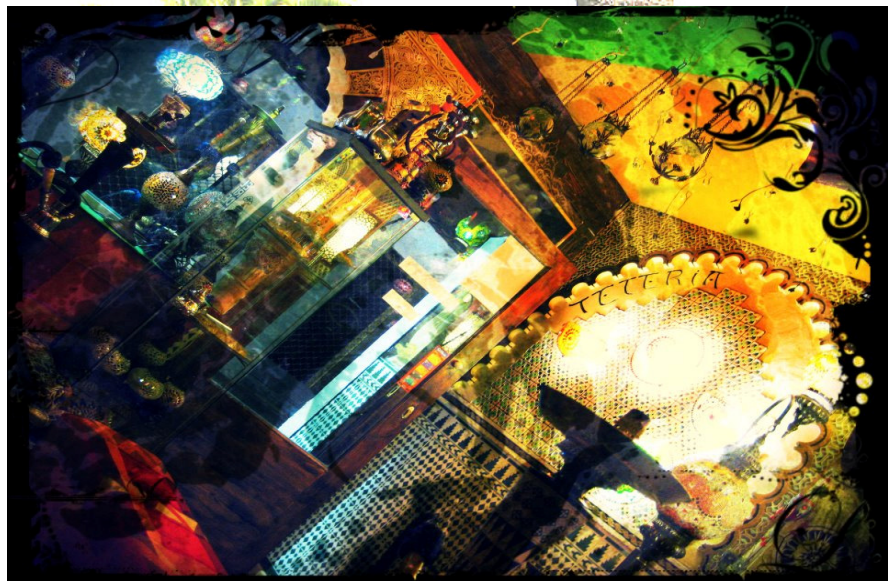

Greetings from Spain! I hope that your semester is going well! I love Spain a lot! Thank you, Professor Schumm, for all your help. Granada is perfect. You are right! :) I love my parents here, my classes, my family.

Everything. Everything is perfect! The food too. Ay! Ha ha.

Until later! and two kisses,*

Allyson

*Spanish people typically greet and take leave of each other with two light kisses, one on each cheek.

Photograph by: Allyson Sass, Teteria in Granada, Spain

Mes vacances de printemps

MICHAEL PRUET

La semaine dernière, je suis allé à Chicago avec des amis pour les vacances de printemps. Il nous fallait presque 12 heures dans une voiture pour arriver, mais c'était assez amusant! Nous sommes allés au Field Museum, où nous avons vu une exposition sur Genghis Khan. L'histoire de l'Empire Mongol était intéressant. Après le musée, nous sommes allés à Navy Pier pour dîner. Nous avons mangé à un café en plein air. Notre serveuse était russe, et très sympa. Nous avons visité Millenium Park aussi, et je l'aimais bien. Mais, après seulement quelques jours, qui semblaient trop courts, nous sommes rentrés à Baldwin City pour commencer de nouveau avec nos cours.

My Spring Break

Last week, I went to Chicago with friends for spring break. We spent almost twelve hours in the car to get there, but it was pretty fun! We went to the Field Museum, where we saw an exhibition on Genghis Khan. The history of the Mongol Empire was interesting. After the museum, we went to Navy Pier for dinner. We ate at an outdoor cafe. Our waitress was Russian, and very friendly. We visited Millennium Park too, and I liked it a lot. But after only a few days, which seemed too short, we returned to Baldwin City to begin classes again.

Don't Forget to Cross your T's and Dot your Umlauts

RYAN HODGES

Elsdorf, Düsseldorf, Erbdorf, Greiz
Gengenbach, Hilchenbach, Kelsterbach, Schleiz
Siegburg, Lichtenberg, Wesenberg, Jülich
Schnackenberg, Radeberg, Dillenberg, Munich

Delbrück, Kindelbrück, Bersenbrück, Sußen
Eibelsstadt, Diemelstadt, Glückenstadt, Stöben
Traunstein, Taunusstein, Uffenheim, Zwönitz
Ziegenrück, Innenbrück, Osnabrück, Zöblitz

WANT TO CONTRIBUTE?

The Vision is Baker University's world language magazine, and we are always seeking and accepting contributions. Writing for the publication is a great way to flex and hone your language and writing skills, so don't be shy!

We at The Vision love and promote all Mother Tongues, so whether you're writing about the World Cup in Spanish or trying to make sense of Middle Eastern foreign policy in Arabic script,

WE WANT IT!

Like us on Facebook @ The Vision—Baker University View past editions on the Baker U. website under "Student Activities"

CONTACT THE VISION

Email: thevisionbu@gmail.com

Editors: Victoria Whitebread & Krystyna Van Driel