After looking over your responses on the Self-Reflecting Entrance Survey, please take a moment to reflect on your personal and professional growth. Address the following aspects in your reflection. (Please feel free to reply on a separate page(s) and attach.

• Other than the accelerated format and convenience of location, what other aspects of this program prompted you to enroll?

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

• Were your academic goals met? If your answer is “yes,” please describe how they were met. If your answer is “no,” please explain.

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

• What actions did your instructors take that propelled you to expand your ideas, abilities, or creativity?

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
• What was your personal contribution to the success and completion of the program?

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

• To what extent do you feel you have acquired a greater understanding of issues, ideas, and practices? Please elaborate.

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

• In what ways do you demonstrate/apply a graduate level of understanding in your own personal classroom or professional setting?

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

• How have the liberal arts courses contributed to your understanding of the diverse world in which we live?

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
• What aspects of the program worked best?

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

• What could be done to make the program better?

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

Student Name: ___________________________________________ Date: _________________________
(Please print)