MIGUEL REGALADO
OFFENSIVE LINE
BAKER UNIVERSITY
9 YEARS OF COLLEGIATE EXPERIENCE

Coach Regalado has made an immediate impact on multiple college football teams when hired to coach their offensive line.

Prior to 2005 the Urbana University Blue Knights hadn’t had a winning season since 1985 and never had a 1,000 yard rusher.

In 2005 as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, Regalado tutored a line that limited opponents to a league best 13 sacks and Urbana’s 1st winning season in 20 years.

In 2006 Regalado’s offensive line paved the way for sophomore RB Kirk Hannah to rush for 1,063 yards at 5.7 yards per carry to become Urbana’s 1st ever 1,000 Yard Rusher.

In 2008, Regalado’s first season at Baker University he guided an offensive line to a successful season which culminated in the Wildcat’s 1st National Playoff appearance since 1993 and a final #12 NAIA Poll Rating.

On the way the offensive line cleared the way for Richie Bryant to lead the league in rushing with over 1,300 yards and 6.0 yards per carry.

In 2009, Regalado’s offensive line again opened holes for Richie Bryant who once more led the HAAC in rushing with over 1,200 yards and 5.0 yards per carry.

Regalado is also the strength and conditioning coordinator for Baker University and served Urbana University in the same capacity.

Regalado played guard at Glendale Community College for current Baker Head Coach Mike Grossner. He then transferred to the University of South Dakota where he started at Center for the Coyotes from 1999-2000.
