Educational Engagement (Highlights of community events and programs)

Fall 2017, Chapters wanted to improve and correct any risk management issues by educating and holding their members accountable. All chapter reviewed with their members the Fraternal Information and Programming Group (FIGP) Risk Management guidelines and the Baker University Alcohol, Amnesty, and Off-Campus Misconduct policies. They had every member sign a confirmation sheet of understanding of the policies. Both IFC and CPC want to require all chapters to complete the same process at the beginning of every semester.

Spring 2018, Interfraternity and Panhellenic Councils will be working on Greek Week and an All-Fraternity and Sorority Life STAG gathering. They will also be working with the Student Activities Council to recommend attendance to speakers Daryl Davis on February 6th and Terms and Conditions on March 6th. Council members are excited to help the community grow through education development, public relations, community engagement, and judicial affairs policies.
