

GREEK WEEK

2009 Greek Week Executive Council Event Chair Application

What is the Greek Week Executive Council?

The Greek Week Executive Council is the organization that will be responsible for planning all aspects of the 2009 Baker University Greek Week activities. All members of the Greek Week Executive Council will be disaffiliated during Greek Week.

What is the role of the Greek Week Executive Council Event Chair?

Greek Week Executive Council Event Chairs will each be responsible for planning one of the week's events and will report to one of the four Greek Week Executive Council Co-Chairs. In addition, Event Chairs will be available to help other Event Chairs in any way during their events.

What are the time commitments required?

Bi-monthly Greek Week Executive Council meetings will be held in October and November and weekly Executive Council meetings will be held during the Spring 2009 semester. Council Co-Chairs may also choose to establish individual meetings with their Event Chairs.

What should I do if I'm interested in being this position?

To apply for the 2009 Greek Week Executive Council Event Chair positions, complete the attached application. All applications are due back by Monday, October 6, at 5:00 p.m. Applicants will be notified of the final selection by Monday, October 13.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact Brett Bruner, Director of Greek Life & Health Education at (785) 594-8304 or brett.bruner@bakeru.edu.
