

Printing and Downloading eBooks

What options do I have for printing and downloading from eBook collections?

- Print
  - o EBSCOhost: Click the Print button, select up to 60 pages, and click Print PDF<sup>1</sup>
  - o Ebrary: Click the InfoTools button, click Print, select up to 60 pages, and click Print<sup>2</sup>
  - o ACLS: Select the PDF option in the page dropdown and print the PDF (prints 3 pages)
- Download a permanent PDF of a chapter or page range (not exceeding print limits above)
  - o EBSCOhost: Click the Print button, select page range, and click Send as Email link<sup>3</sup>
  - o Ebrary: Click the Download button, select extent of download, and click OK<sup>4</sup>
  - o ACLS: Select the PDF option in the page dropdown and save the PDF
- Checkout and download an entire eBook<sup>5</sup>

What limitations are placed on downloading an entire eBook?

- Simultaneous Use: Over 80% of our eBooks provide unlimited simultaneous use, the rest can only be viewed by one person at a time
- If you wish to download an eBook:
  - o Term of download: Most files expire after 14 days, others expire after 7 days (remaining time indicated by the gold banner over the cover image in Adobe Digital Editions)

Download limit per person: 10 from each collection at a time

- Returning downloaded books: Books can be returned early using the Adobe Digital Editions platform (click the arrow link that appears while hovering over a cover in the library view)
- Devices: most computers and handheld devices can accommodate downloading eBooks through USB, data, or Wi-Fi connection (except Kindle). Up to 6 devices can be synced with an Adobe Digital Editions account.

What accounts are required to download an eBook to any computer or device?

1. A personal account for the collection website (create using the Sign in Link in the top bar)
2. An Adobe Digital Editions Account:
  - o Go to <https://www.adobe.com/cfusion/membership>
  - o Click "Create an account"
  - o Fill in at least the starred fields...
  - o Click "OK"
