Online Enrollment

Online Enrollment: Current degree-seeking students and students who have been admitted into the Master of Liberal Arts, Master of Arts in Education, Master of Science in School Leadership, and School Leadership Licensure programs enroll in Spring 2010 classes online through their Baker Student Portal. Please read the following information carefully prior to your enrollment date to help ensure your success in online enrollment.

Student Portal: To utilize online enrollment, current and recently admitted students must have created a Baker Student Portal. Please make sure that you have set up your Baker Student Portal prior to your enrollment date. To create your Baker Portal:

- Go to www.bakerU.edu
- Click "Portal"
- Select "Graduate and Working Adult Campuses"
- Go to "Student Portal Homepage."
- Click on "Create a New Account" and follow the directions.

If you need additional assistance setting up your Baker Student Portal, please contact Helpdesk@bakeru.edu.

Advising: Prior to enrollment, students should contact their Student Services advisor to request a degree progress audit to confirm needed coursework.

Dropping A Course: To drop a course from your schedule after enrollment closes, contact your Student Services Advisor at 316.636.2322.

Note: Students may enroll in only one MAS course per term.

Students design a project that outlines the use of varied modes of assessment. MAEd and MSSL Core Course (3 credits)

EDU 5121 Inquiry & Research

This course gives educators a simple, practical, believable way to conduct and interpret their research for the general betterment of both their instructional practices and the profession of teaching. MAEd and MSSL Core Course (3 credits)

EDU 5531 Today's Learner

This course explores the changing face of classroom students through current research on academic success. This course examines how classroom diversity has implications for curriculum, instruction, and school climate. Participants learn about building strengths in their classroom students, fostering resiliency, and creating supportive environments and relationships to encourage academic and social growth. MAEd and MSSL Core Course (3 credits)

School Leadership Courses

* MSSL students can enroll in only one MAS course per term.

MAS 5010 Foundations of Educational Administration

This course includes a study of personal and educational leadership applicable to building-level administration at the elementary and secondary level. Participants develop the ability to transfer beliefs and values, leadership theories, and educational research into policy and best practice. Participants study a number of topics related to leadership and administration, including team and community building, time management, theories of motivation, communication practices, societal expectations, organizational change, and the process of achieving “win-win.” Participants are introduced to the standards provided by the Interstate School leader Licensure Consortium (ISLLC) in preparation for the licensing examination later in the program. MSSL Core Course (This course must be completed prior to enrollment in any other school leadership course). (3 credits)

MAS 5020 Organizational Health & Performance

This course provides participants with leadership skills needed to manage, make decisions, and guide a healthy organization. Participants develop an understanding of organizational culture and climate characteristics important in a collaborative learning organization. Participants increase skills for using the technology needed to collect and analyze data for classroom enhancement. Prerequisite: MAS 5010. MSSL Core Course (3 credits)

MAS 5030 School Personnel

This course provides participants with the expertise to select, supervise, evaluate, empower, and provide development for school personnel. Participants study important constitutional, moral, legal, liability, ethical, and policy issues that relate to employment rights and practices. Participants enhance interpersonal skills that develop two-way communications with personnel. The course introduces the skills to maintain personnel records, develop policies and procedures handbooks, document personnel recommendations, and budget for personnel needs. Participants learn to use technology for personnel management and classroom enhancement. Prerequisite: MAS 5010. MSSL Core Course (3 credits)

MAS 5040 Curriculum & Instruction for Administrators

This course provides participants with the leadership skills to develop a building mission and vision relating to curriculum and instruction. Participants become knowledgeable about how to create curriculum and instruction consistent with the district's program and objectives. A variety of instructional strategies and models supported by research and best practices and a variety of methods and tools used to monitor and assess the curriculum are examined. Prerequisite: MAS 5010. MSSL Core Course (3 credits)

MAS 5050 Student Services, Climate, & Programs

This course is designed to provide students with the leadership skills necessary to create discipline practices and a school environment that maintains a safe, orderly, and student centered climate; provide for student governance, organizations, clubs, and co-curricular activities; provide for the many different needs of a diverse student population; and provide for student support services, including sponsors for activities, counseling, transportation, and food service. Participants develop an understanding of the processes and responsibilities of monitoring student activities, legal liability issues, due process procedures relating to suspension and expulsion, and disciplinary procedures. Prerequisite: MAS 5010. MSSL Core Course (3 credits)

MAS 5060 Legal & Ethical Issues of School Leadership

This course is designed to prepare aspiring building level leaders to address issues in the legal structure of public education and to become skilled in locating and using resources pertaining to changing laws and court decisions. Problems are presented for solutions that increase understanding of ethical issues facing school leaders. Prerequisite: MAS 5010. MSSL Core Course (3 credits)

MAS 5070 School Planning, Operations, & Finances

This course prepares building level leaders to manage the planning, maintenance, and support of the school for the best learning environment. Major topics include issues of financial policies and practices, budgeting, funds control and accountability, and school planning and operations. Legal issues to be considered in school operations and management are addressed. Prerequisite: MAS 5010. MSSL Core Course (3 credits)

Students examine prominent 19th, 20th, and 21st century texts and films that explore the relationship between vampires and their victims. Students focus on the dimensions of why people—both fictional and real—are drawn to vampires and how vampires reflect social concerns relating to identity, violence, sexuality, gender roles, adolescence, ethnicity, and religious belief. (3 credits)

Course Descriptions

HIS 5191 Lewis and Clark

The United States doubled in size with the Louisiana Purchase, and Lewis and Clark played a critical role in defining what this increase in size and resources meant to the country. Students study Lewis and Clark's explorations, examining Jefferson's presidency, and the state of the U.S. government at the time. Students examine the role of diversity during the journey by analyzing Native Americans' contributions and Sacagawea's role. Students explore what Lewis and Clark's expedition meant to and for the burgeoning country. (3 credits)

HIS/SOC 5203 History of Childhood in America

Students explore the historical perspectives of how children grow up in America. The overarching question guiding the course asks how children of various races, classes, ethnicities, abilities, and sexualities experienced life in the past and how this knowledge helps us understand contemporary children and their families. (3 credits)

HIS/SOS 5515 Sociology and History of the Mafia

Students analyze the Sicilian Mafia in Italy and America through a historical, social, and cultural perspective, tracing its progression from the unification of Italy to the 21st century in America. The Mafia is examined from a sociological point of view, reviewing structures, relationships, codes, and communication. (3 credits)

HTH/SCI 5518 Stress Management

Students explore the effects of stress on the human body and apply strategies for coping with and reducing stress. Students investigate how stress influences disease processes, as well as emotional health, mental fitness, and a general sense of wellness. (3 credits)

HUM 5500 Interdisciplinary Liberal Arts

This course is designed as a common experience to incoming Master of Liberal Arts students. The course provides students with opportunities to share their life experiences and intellectual experiences with fellow students. The focus of the course is the examination of the Liberal Arts as acts of critical inquiry. Students become acquainted with classical ideas that lie behind much of the tradition of Western thought, as well as some modern approaches. Basics of reading, writing, and research are reviewed and students examine their daily world more deeply, in more detail, and in more complex ways. (3 credits)

MGE/GNS 5117 Women Leaders

Students study notable women whose leadership shaped America. Through humanitarian efforts, scientific endeavors, the performing arts, politics, medicine, and education innovations, they changed the way we live, work, worship, and enjoy life. The stories of these women are read, told, studied, and related to the realities of the past and the possibilities of the future. (3 credits)

PHL 5008 Philosophy in Martial Arts

Various philosophies have found a culturally formative expression through the martial arts. This course acquaints students with the history, practice, philosophy, and religion associated with the martial arts as they have evolved throughout Asia and India and their impact on modern western transitions. (3 credits)

PSY 5011 Psychology of Humor

Students examine humor as it appears in various mediums including film, comics, television, jokes, stories, stand-up, plays, and live performance. We will also explore various kinds of comedy and will discuss why some people find one form to be brilliantly funny while others do not. In addition, we will review various definitions of humor, the value of humor in various settings and the social benefits and liabilities of comedy. (3 credits)

SCI/PHL 5024 Case Studies in the Philosophy of Mental Disorder

Students examine philosophical questions as they apply to mental disorder. Through the use of case studies, students analyze the philosophical debates evident in the field of psychiatry. Students explicitly examine the value-laden nature of psychiatric diagnosis and decisions combined with the medical nature of treatment. Students explore key dichotomies, including autonomy vs. beneficence, rational vs. irrational, freedom vs. control, and disclosure vs. nondisclosure. (3 credits)

SCI/HTH 6316 Foundations of Fitness

Students examine the field of human fitness, exercise, and wellness, exploring the nature, history, philosophy, and foundations of these areas. Students identify, compare, and contrast at least ten fitness programs and analyze the roles of exercise and fitness in society. Students interview practitioners in the field and participate in selected exercise and fitness activities before designing an individual program to maximize personal wellness. (3 credits)

Travel Courses

CUL/HIS 5104 Peru: Journey to the Cradle of Inca Civilization

Students travel to Cusco, Peru, the center of the Inca Empire from 1438 until the Spanish Conquest by Francisco Pizarro in 1532. In Cusco and the surrounding Sacred Valley of the Incas, students observe firsthand the great architectural, artistic, and agricultural achievements of the Inca civilization, culminating with a two-day visit to the magnificent citadel of Machu Picchu, rediscovered by Hiram Bingham in 1911. (3 credits)

CUL5002/MGE 5400 North America and the European Union London England

Students in this course experience an interdisciplinary perspective focusing upon the concept of the European Union (EU). The historical examination, beginning with mid-century interstate reconciliation, encompasses a balanced view of what the EU is and what it can be. Students examine the infinite complexities of the EU to gain an understanding of the historical, economic, international relations, political, educational, and legal implications. Course outcomes are formulated to ensure relevance for business management professionals, educators, attorneys, or anyone involved in international matters. The course includes travel to a European county and cultural immersion to more fully facilitate development of conceptual knowledge. (3 credits)
