Children of Eden
July 5–12

With music and lyrics by Stephen Schwartz (Wicked, Godspell, Pippin), Children of Eden is a frank, heartfelt and often humorous examination of the age-old conflict between parents and children, freely based on the book of Genesis. Adam, Eve, Noah and the “Father” who created them deal with the headstrong, cataclysmic actions of their respective children. The show ultimately delivers a bittersweet but inspiring message: “The hardest part of love . . . is letting go.”

Children of Eden opened in London in 1991 and then was brought to the United States and premiered at the highly respected Papermill Playhouse in 1997. Since then, it has become one of the most licensed and performed musicals of this century.

The Pajama Game
July 19–26

A favorite classic musical, The Pajama Game tells the stories of the employees of the Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory. Conditions are anything but peaceful, as sparks fly between new superintendent Sid Sorokin and Babe Williams, leader of the union grievance committee. Their stormy relationship comes to a head when the workers strike for a 7 1/2 cent pay increase, setting off not only a conflict between management and labor, but a battle of the sexes as well.

The Pajama Game opened on Broadway in 1954 and won the Tony Award for Best Musical as well as Best Choreography for Bob Fosse’s groundbreaking work on songs like “Steam Heat” and “Hernando’s Hideaway.” The 2006 Broadway Revival again won the Tony Award for Best Revival of a Musical and starred Harry Connick, Jr. and Kelli O’Hara.

Baker University is excited to collaborate with Music Theatre Kansas City, the area’s top professional preparatory training program, for the 23rd summer of Broadway at Baker. Together, we offer a unique musical theatre intensive where 55 campers will be cast in, rehearse, and perform a full-scale Broadway musical in just seven days. All campers will arrive on Sunday afternoon, where they will meet their roommates, get settled in their rooms, and start the audition process. Auditions, callbacks, and casting all take place on Sunday. Rehearsal begins Monday and continues daily with vocal, dance, and blocking rehearsal/review from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Nightly activities follow rehearsal every day. Any student serious about a career in musical theatre will thrive in this challenging, educational, and rewarding environment.

Where: Baker University, located in Baldwin City, Kan., 40 miles southwest of Kansas City and 50 miles southeast of Topeka.

Who: Open to students 13 to 18 years old.

Cost: Tuition is $550 with a deposit of $150 required to hold your place. The balance is due on or before camp registration. A discount of $90 is available for senior campers attending both camps. Please indicate on the registration form your preferred camp should camps be full. A limited number of scholarships are available. Contact Cary Danielson-Pandzik for more information at cary@mtkc.org.

A separate key/room/script/meal-card return deposit of $50 is required at check-in. This must be paid by check. The deposit will be refunded at camp checkout, unless the key or meal card is lost, room damage has occurred, or the script is not returned. Late returns of keys or scripts will not be accepted.

The price includes meals, lodging in the New Living Center dorm, instruction fees, performance materials, and four complimentary tickets to the final Sunday-afternoon performance.

Each cast will perform a production number from the show at the 2015 MTKC Gala on Sunday, August 9.
