

Family Weekend Schedule
September 8 - 10, 2023

Friday, September 8

- | | | |
|--------------------------|---|---|
| 9:00 am – 4:00 pm | Wildcat Wearhouse open | Harter Union, 1st Floor |
| | Browse the Wildcat Wearhouse for your latest Baker gear including t-shirts, sweatshirts, hats, cups, blankets, and so much more! | |
| 7:00 pm | Lumberyard Live on High: Stone Cutters Union | Sullivan Square |
| | Enjoy this free community concert, part of the Lumberyard Arts Center's live music series, "Lumberyard Live on High" and sponsored by Baldwin State Bank. Stone Cutters Union creates rocking blues that are simultaneously doleful and joyous, traditional and modern, sacred and profane. All delivered with energy, humor, and reckless abandon. They are a cross section of the beating heart of the Kansas City blues scene. | |
| 7:30 pm | Theatre and Musical Showcase | Rice Auditorium |
| | Directed by Professor Trevor Belt. This Showcase will highlight our Theatre, Music, and Fine Arts students. A reveal of the season will end the show. | |

BU Alumni Legacy Breakfast

Alumni Center

For more than 160 Years, Baker University has passed along a tradition of generations graduating from the Baldwin City campus. Parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts, and siblings of current students are closely intertwined with the Baker family tree. If you have a student attending Baker this year and you or a member of your family attended Baker before them, you are invited to our Alumni Legacy Breakfast. Hosted by the Alumni Association, the free event at the Alumni Center (former Phi Mu house) on 8th Street across from the Collins Library is the perfect occasion to catch up with your student.
