

Affidavit of Financial Support for International Students

U.S. government regulations require international students to show that they have financial resources to pay for their first year of estimated expenses while studying in the U.S. A completed Affidavit of Financial Support, along with documentation of funding, are required before the I-20 can be issued.

Please submit the following documents:

1. Affidavit of Financial Support, fully completed and signed.
2. Documentation to show that the sponsor(s) can provide funding for total estimated expenses for 1 year of study, minus any renewable scholarships. One or more of the following documents can be submitted:

 - b. A bank letter, on bank letterhead, showing the date the account opened, type of account, average balance, and current balance.
 - c. Scholarship or sponsorship letter verifying the amount, sources, and dates of award, and approved program of study.

Bank documents are required to:

1. Be translated into English
2. Be less than 12 months old
3. Include the type of currency and type of account
