Evening Classes:

The final examinations for late afternoon and evening classes are scheduled for the regular meeting time during final exam week.

Special Notes:

Faculty legislation indicates that final examinations will not be scheduled at times other than the officially assigned final examination time without approval from the Academic Dean. Faculty have no obligation to give exams at a time other than the time posted.

Students should not ask to take their exams at a time other than the time posted on the registrar's webpage for any reason other than extraordinary, unavoidable circumstances. Students should arrange their end of term travel around the final exam schedule as a conflict with a flight schedule will not be considered as extraordinary or unavoidable.

*Students who have three or more final exams scheduled on the same day of the final exam period may visit with the Academic Dean (Dr. Tina Hartley) to arrange with the involved faculty an alternative time for one of the finals.
